Food Bank of Corpus Christi Agreement

Food Bank of Corpus Christi agrees to offer cooking classes in exchange for payment by the client according to the following terms and conditions:

SAFETY: Culinary classes at Food Bank of Corpus Christi are hands-on and students are required to use various kitchen utensils and cooking equipment. We are committed to safety and health at all times in our kitchen. By signing this form you release Food Bank of Corpus Christi, the executive director and employees from all liability for injuries and/or damages incurred in connection with attendance in a cooking class.

ATTIRE: Class participants are required to wear closed toe shoes. It is recommended that shoes be rubber- soled and/or non-slip. Short sleeves are preferred. Long hair should be tied back. No loose jewelry, dangling earrings, bracelets or necklaces should be worn.

SANITATION: Proper hand washing with warm water and soap is required after using the bathroom, sneezing, coughing or handling raw food products. Hand washing is the single most important activity that can be done to prevent food- borne illnesses.

SCHEDULING: Food Bank of Corpus Christi reserves the right to cancel classes and provide a full refund when class minimum registration numbers are not met. Payment will be refunded fully if class is cancelled.

PAYMENT AND CANCELLATIONS: Payment is due in full before the class. Food costs, recipes and culinary instruction are included in tuition. Reservations are taken on a first come, first serve basis. No refunds will be given for missed classes. Classes must be cancelled within 72 hours in order to receive refund.

PHOTO, VIDEO OR OTHER RECORDING CONSENT: By signing this form the individual gives consent to Food Bank of Corpus Christi to use images or filmed footage of cooking classes in printed materials or on the web for the purposes of promoting Food Bank of Corpus Christi classes. Please note there is no compensation for the use of photos. Please indicate if you do not wish to be photographed or filmed.

STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES: Students are expected to show respect for others, follow directions from teachers and staff, and abide by all class rules. Food Bank of Corpus Christi reserves the right to send a student home or decline their return if their behavior is inappropriate.
